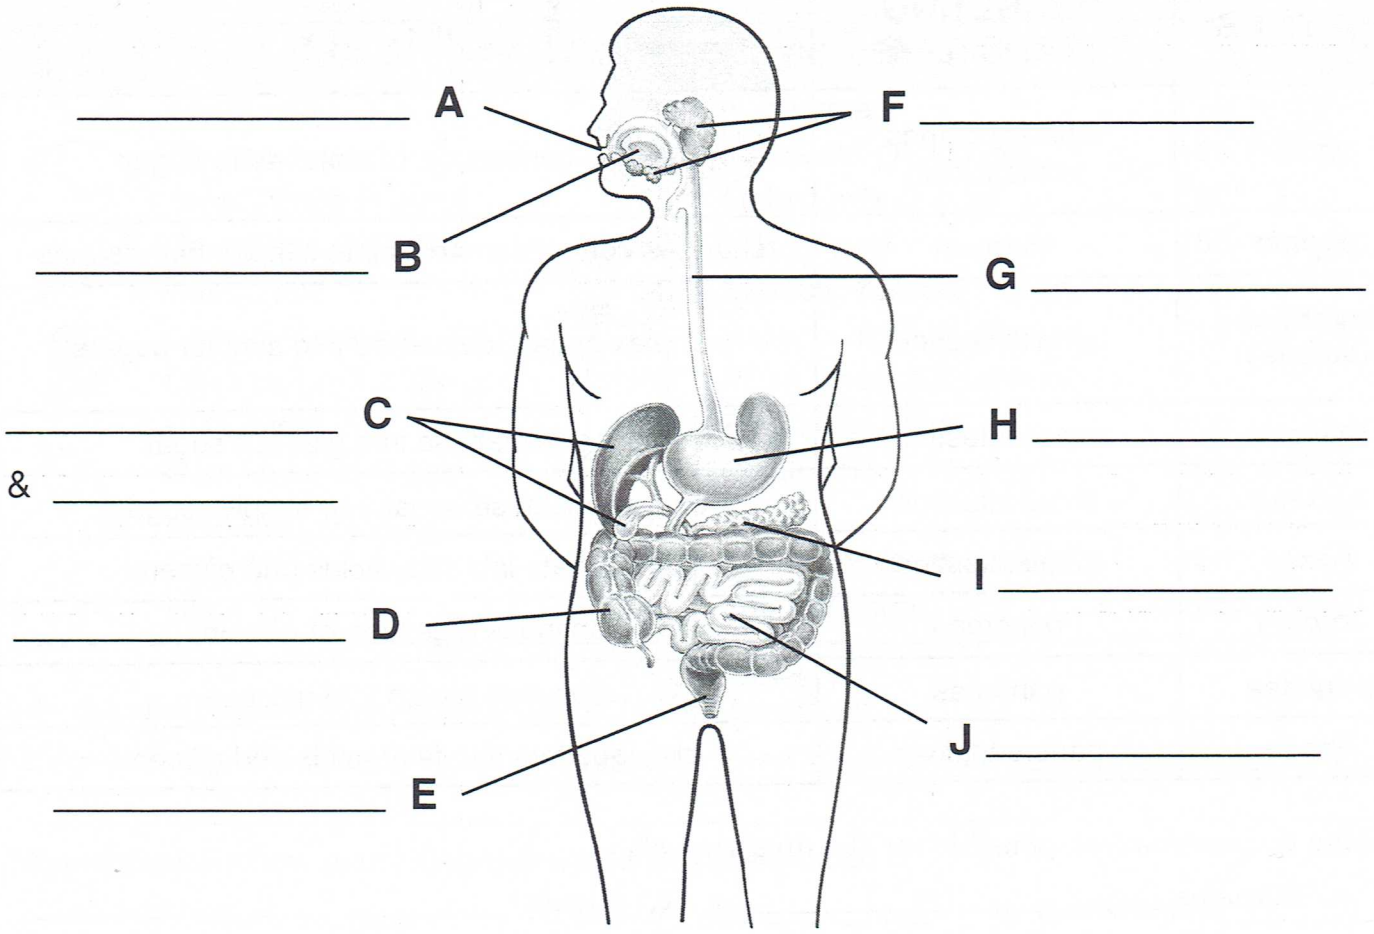
The Digestion Process



1. Identify and label each part of the digestive system shown above.
2. Name the organ of the digestive system that performs each of the following functions:
   a. concentrates wastes _____
   b. secretions begin the conversion of starch to sugar _____
   c. absorbs digested food into the bloodstream _____
   d. reduces size of food particles _____
   e. secretions cause food mass to become alkaline _____
   f. controls elimination of solid wastes _____
   g. adds acid to food mass _____
   h. moves food around in the mouth _____
3. Briefly describe the major steps in the digestion process. _____

© Milliken Publishing Company