

'I Am Human' Story Book

“ There are only two ways to live your life:
as though nothing is a miracle,
or as though
everything is a miracle. ”

-Albert Einstein

Directions: Follow the steps below to design your own book about being human!

1. Circle five sentences to use in your story:

"I am grateful to give and receive love."

"I am grateful for this body."

"I am grateful for this breath."

"I am grateful for play."

"I am grateful for delicious food."

"I am grateful to be able to help others."

"I am grateful to be able to learn from my mistakes."

"I am grateful to be me—for my uniqueness and talents."

"I am grateful for the miracle of life."

Name _____

Date _____

'I Am Human' Story Book

2. Now write three original sentences of things you are grateful for to use in your story:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

3. Draw a picture for your cover below. Then write your sentences in the boxes below (one sentence per box) and include illustrations. When you are done, cut out the boxes and staple them together to create your book.

I AM HUMAN

By _____

Name _____

Date _____

'I Am Human' Story Book

A large, empty rectangular box with a solid red border, intended for writing a story. The box is surrounded by a dashed black line, which serves as a guide for cutting out the page.

A second large, empty rectangular box with a solid red border, identical to the one above, intended for writing a story. It is also surrounded by a dashed black line for cutting.

Name _____

Date _____

'I Am Human' Story Book

A large, empty rectangular box with a solid red border, intended for writing a story. It is enclosed within a larger dashed-line border.

A second large, empty rectangular box with a solid red border, identical to the first one, intended for writing a story. It is also enclosed within the dashed-line border.

Name _____

Date _____

'I Am Human' Story Book

A large, empty rectangular box with a solid red border, intended for writing a story. It is enclosed within a larger dashed-line border.

A second large, empty rectangular box with a solid red border, identical to the one above, intended for writing a story. It is also enclosed within the dashed-line border.

Name _____

Date _____

'I Am Human' Story Book

A large, empty rectangular box with a solid red border, intended for writing a story. The box is surrounded by a dashed black line, which serves as a guide for cutting out the page.

A second large, empty rectangular box with a solid red border, identical to the one above, intended for writing a story. It is also surrounded by a dashed black line for cutting.